

Introduction

1 From Paul and Timothy, both of us servants of Jesus, the Anointed One. To all his devoted followers in Philippi, including your pastors, and to all the servant-leaders of the church.

May the blessings of divine grace and supernatural peace that flow from God our wonderful Father, and our Messiah, the Lord Jesus, be upon your lives.

Paul Prays for the Philippians

The pastors for you are full of praise to God, as I give him thanks for you with great joy! I'm so grateful for our partnership and ministry partnership.

My joy is that I presented to you the gospel, and you received it with joy and faith. You have become my coworkers, and spiritual sons. See 1 Tim. 1:2.

you the gospel. I pray with great faith for you, because I'm fully convinced that the One who began this glorious work in you will, faithfully continuing the process of maturing you, and unveiling of our Lord Jesus Christ, put his finishing touches to it until the end of time.

It's no wonder, I pray with such confidence, since you have a permanent place in my heart! You have remained partners with me in the wonderful grace of God even though I'm here in chains for standing up for the truth of the gospel! Only God knows how much I dearly love you with the tender affection of Jesus, the Anointed One.

I continue to pray for your love to grow and increase beyond measure.
