Colossians 1: <sup>13</sup> He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom (basileia) of the Son of His love

“power” (exousia) – authority

“kingdom” (basileia) – royal rule and reign of a king

“How simple and yet what strangers we are to this rest! How the Lord’s servants are rushing hither and thither to find this great blessing, and yet do not enter into it! Why is this? It is because we do not believe that His will is better than our own. If we were occupied with the Lord instead of with ourselves, with the Blessor instead of with our “blessing,”

Effect of His Presence

In the joy of His presence where our hearts are so before God and with God, our own will vanishes without an effort, without us even knowing it.
